

WEEKLY NEWS

Weekly Newsletter for: Let's do More for Santa Rosalía, a Non-Profit Foundation!

Fundación

Hagamos Más

Tu decides hasta donde quieres llegar

Recognition

Especial thanks to Mr. Alejandro Treviño representative at GDI Corp. for donating 40 food-bag supplies for Odile Hurricane victims, all which were hand-delivered to community school families.

CRESCA Dog Rescue Center

Another pet finds a home! A Chihuahua puppy was given to Mrs. Clara Nieto from the town section known as Colonia Rancheria.

This sweet puppy is also looking for a home; he is currently staying temporarily at another home, he'll continue to wait to one-day become adopted. If interested please contact us at 152-1378.

Donation

We want to express our deepest gratitude to CABINET REIMBERT and GESB Corp. because even though these are inland companies, they are still willing to help our local community in tuff times; during the Hurricane Odile contingency they made several donations to purchase food to give-out and they also have showed interest in continuing to support the implemented social programs in our community. For us, it is very gratifying to see that each time more and more people are interested in contributing to our work.

Fundraising

This week's Terco's Pollito Restaurant reaffirmed its commitment to continue to support our work by signing a new cooperation agreement with our Non-Profit Foundation, we send them our deepest thanks for their continued support and concern for the welfare of the community.

Education for Life Program

This week at the schools where the Education for Life program is being applied, the topic of discussion was the empathy for the work of others, the students researched various work professions of the community with the intend to further understand the work role and the impact.

Friends of the Fuondation

The local Book Club invites you to their 3rd night of reading being held on Saturday, October 25th at the SUTERM Hall. They will look forward to seeing you there; the event will begin at 7 pm. There will be a guest speaker, a writer, Mr. Adolfo Morales Moncada, presenting his new book "Apalábrate".

